• Telefónica and GSMA Chairman, José María Álvarez-Pallete, speaking at the opening session of the MWC, stressed that the new GSMA Open Gateway standard, unveiled today in Barcelona, “bonds Telcos, the Industry, Big Techs and Developers to create the digital future together”.

• “We are at the doors of a new change of era driven by the intersection of Telco, Computing, AI and Web3”, said Álvarez-Pallete, for whom this paradigm shift will demonstrate that “without telcos there is no future”.
