Sacyr chooses Telefónica Tech for the management of its public cloud

PUBLISHED DEC 21, 2022
BY TELEFÓNICA

• The technology company will manage Sacyr's public cloud contracts with the three hyperscalers (Amazon Web Services, Google Cloud and Microsoft Azure) over the next three years.

• Sacyr's commitment to public cloud services will allow it to improve its technological infrastructures, accelerate its digitalization, optimise the management of its key data and achieve a more efficient implementation of advanced Artificial Intelligence solutions.

• Telefónica Tech will spare the company the complexity of managing different cloud environments and technologies and will make its capabilities in managed and professional services available to it.
