

Europe's biggest charging network: 500,000 Elli charging points set the stage for the transition to e-mobility

PUBLISHED APR 16, 2023

BY VOLKSWAGEN

Elli, the market leader among Europe's charging network providers with 500,000 charging stations, has become the first company to achieve an important milestone in accessing the charging infrastructure. In the last four months alone, the Volkswagen Group's charging and mobility brand has added 100,000 charging points to its network. Elli gives customers a comfortable, cross-border charging experience, providing access to some 950 providers in 28 countries. A close-knit, reliable charging network and easy-to-use charging stations are the key to e-mobility. They allow drivers to use their electric vehicle without range anxiety.
