Volkswagen AG aims to make data centers climate-neutral by 2027

PUBLISHED NOV 2, 2022
BY VOLKSWAGEN

Today, Volkswagen AG announced its goal of making its data center operations net carbon-neutral by 2027. To achieve this goal, the Group has expanded its computing capacities at Green Mountain, a Norwegian operator of CO_2-neutral data centers. With this expansion, one quarter of Volkswagen's global data center operations will run carbon-neutrally. This corresponds to annual CO_2 savings of 10,000 tons.
