

Countries across the WHO European Region celebrate World Health Day 2022

PUBLISHED APR 27, 2022
BY WORLD HEALTH ORGANIZATION

The theme for World Health Day 2022 “Our Planet – Our Health” was an opportunity to showcase how individual choices and social behaviours impact our planet and environment, and the connection between those issues and our own personal health. Countries around the WHO European Region marked the day and took action for a #HealthierTomorrow! with activities that included:

Example of activities in countries included the following:
