The European Technical Advisory Group of Experts on Immunization (ETAGE) met virtually on 14 March 2022 to update its recommendations for Member States of the WHO European Region on prioritization and use of COVID-19 vaccines.

Based on a review of available evidence on vaccine effectiveness, the status of COVID-19 vaccination in the Region, and global guidance from the Strategic Advisory Group of Experts on Immunization (SAGE), ETAGE concluded the following.

A full report of the meeting is forthcoming and will be posted on the WHO/Europe website.
